(11:15) "O Savior, in This Quiet Place"

Hymn 794, vs. 1 To the tune "Amazing Grace"

O Savior, in this quiet place, where anyone may kneel,
We also come to ask for grace, believing you can heal.

SILENT PRAYER

PRAYER OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

There are people we pass by, Compassionate Lord.
Some are family or friends we take for granted.
Others are neighbors who have fallen on hard times. Many are strangers we do not know, but quickly judge because they are weak, or poor, or because they remind us of who we once were, or could become. Rescue us from the power of our sins, that we would pause to notice the need of another, be moved with pity, and spurred into action. Just as we have received forgiveness so may we offer mercy to others through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

*HYMN NO. 795

“Healer of Our Every Ill”

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (from the Confession of 1967)

To be reconciled to God is to be sent into the world as God’s reconciling community. This community, the church universal, is entrusted with God’s message of reconciliation and shares God’s labor of healing the enmities which separate people from God and from each other. Christ has called the church to this mission and given it the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The life, death, resurrection, and promised coming of Jesus Christ has set the pattern for the church’s mission. His human life involves the church in the common life of all people. His service to men and women commits the church to work for every form of human well-being. His suffering makes the church sensitive to all suffering so that it sees the face of Christ in the faces of those in need. His crucifixion discloses to the church God’s judgement on the inhumanity that marks human relations, and the awful consequences of the church’s own complicity in injustice. In the power of the risen Christ and the hope of his coming, the church sees the promise of God’s renewal of life and of God’s victory over all wrong.
