TRANSFIGURATION SUNDAY

PRELUDE "Melody in D" Samuel Coleridge-Taylor

CALL TO WORSHIP Ethan Warner and Anders Sonstebj
Shout with joy to God and to all the earth he created. Serve the Lord and all His people with gladness and acceptance. They sing praises to you, they worship you, and they care for you. We don't always follow your path, but you guide us back to your righteous ways. Give Him your glorious praise. For the Lord is good, and forgives us our sins. Enter His gates with your everlasting love and receive from Him His everlasting love. Lead us, O God, in your path to righteousness. Amen.

HYMN No. 192 "Lord, the Light of Your Love Is Shining"
Cantor: Connie Curilla

- 1) Lord, the light of your love is shining, in the midst of the darkness, shining; Jesus, Light of the World, shine upon us; set us free by the truth you now bring us. Shine on me; shine on me.

Refrain:

Shine, Jesus, shine; fill this land with the Father's glory. Blaze, Spirit, blaze; set our hearts on fire. Flow, river, flow; flood the nations with grace and mercy. Send forth your word, Lord, and let there be light.

- 2) Lord, I come to your awesome presence, from the shadows into your radiance; by the blood I may enter your brightness. Search me; try me; consume all my darkness. Shine on me; shine on me.

Refrain

- 3) As we gaze on your kingly brightness, so our faces display your likeness; ever changing from glory to glory, mirrored here may our lives tell your story. Shine on me; shine on me.

Refrain

PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

POSTLUDE "Impromptu No. 1" Samuel Coleridge-Taylor

Each Sunday in February (Black History Month) we will hear organ music by a Black composer. Today's featured composer is Samuel Coleridge-Taylor (1875-1912).

Samuel Coleridge-Taylor was born in Croydon, England, on August 15, 1875. His father, a doctor from Sierra Leone, was forced to return to his home country around the time of Samuel's birth because he was not permitted to practice medicine in England. Samuel remained in England with his mother.

Coleridge-Taylor's talent was quickly recognized by the British musical elite. One of his principal music composition teachers was Charles Villiers Stanford.

Coleridge-Taylor toured in the United States three times--in 1904, 1906, and 1910. During the first tour, Coleridge-Taylor conducted the Marine Band along with the Coleridge-Taylor Society Chorus. He also met with President Teddy Roosevelt. Subsequent tours took Coleridge-Taylor to more and more cities in the Midwest and the East.

Coleridge-Taylor taught at Trinity College of Music and conducted the prestigious Handel Society in London from 1904 until his death. Samuel Coleridge-Taylor died on September 1, 1912, of pneumonia contracted due to overwork.

DOXOLOGY

PRAYER OF DEDICATION Elijah Snyder and Rhett McLaren

For what does it profit one to gain the world but lose themselves? We offer up a portion of our profit to you. Grant us the judgement and wisdom to use this money to perform your work in a loving and equitable way. Amen.

SHARING OF JOYS AND CONCERNS

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Carly Erickson and Heather Steel

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

HYMN No. 452 "Open the Eyes of My Heart"

Open the eyes of my heart, Lord.
Open the eyes of my heart;
I want to see you;
I want to see you;

To see you high and lifted up,
shining in the light of your glory.
Pour out your power and love
As we sing "Holy, holy, holy."

Open the eyes of my heart, Lord.
Open the eyes of my heart;
I want to see you;
I want to see you;

To see you high and lifted up,
shining in the light of your glory.
Pour out your power and love
As we sing "Holy, holy, holy."

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Jillian Rounsville and Jamie Bauman

God, we confess that we put our priorities above Your priorities. We put our fear and anxieties before Your trust, although we do not always realize we are doing this. We have not always loved our neighbors and enemies as ourselves, or been good to those who disagree with us. We have allowed division instead of equality, and we don't always treat every individual the same. We have let selfish thoughts into our heads, and we don't always think about others first. We look to You to redirect us onto Your path. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

God, we ask You to hear our confessions and forgive us for our wrongdoings. We know that You sent Your son, Jesus Christ here to save us, and clean our slates out of love for us. You always hold us in Your hands, and love us unconditionally, for which we are grateful. Amen.

ANTHEM

"Shine on Us"

Music by Seaborn M. Denson
Words and Arrangement by Victoria Schwarz

On to the mountain we must go,
and for a moment stay
where time slows down and Love draws close,
as Jesus kneels to pray.

Then, holy mystery, light breaks forth,
outshining right of day.
His robe a pure and glimmering white;
The sun reflects His face.

Oh, shine on us, dear Lord and Christ;
And let Your light be known.
We soon shall come down from the mount;
And lean on You alone.

Elijah, Moses soon appear,
the stand with Christ the King!
Their glory shines, all around as they speak on heavenly things.

Then gathered 'round a radiant cloud,
The voice of God within,
"This is my Son, Beloved one.
You should listen to Him."

Oh, shine on us, dear Lord and Christ.
You've let Your light be known.
Let us tarry on this mountaintop;
reside with You alone.

No angels gather 'round this mount.
No song echoes in the air.
As Jesus starts to lead us down,
our hearts are calling clear:

"Oh, shine on us, dear Lord and Christ;
and let Your light be known.
As we climb down from the mount,
we lean on You alone.

PRAYER OF ILLUMINATION Jakob Stafford and Brady Wassom
Divine and Holy Creator, Word made flesh, let us come to this Word open to being surprised. . .and transformed! Silence our agendas; banish our assumptions; cast out our casual detachment. Confound our expectations; clear the cobwebs from our ears; penetrate the corners of our hearts with this Word. We know that you can, we pray that you will, and we wait with great anticipation. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING: Luke 9:28-36 Olivia Mortimore 28 Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. ²⁹And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. ³⁰Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. ³¹They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. ³²Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. ³³Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah'—not knowing what he said. ³⁴While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them;

and they were terrified as they entered the cloud.
³⁵Then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!' ³⁶When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.
