PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O God, help us to learn patience from you, for we are an impatient people. Forgive us for the snap judgments we make, the rush to arrive at a decision even when we lack the understanding to choose wisely. We settle for half truths, because we fail to wait for the whole truth to emerge before us. Slow us down so that we may notice subtle changes, listen to the quiet voices, and attend to the deepest needs within around us. Teach us how to do the time intensive work of creating a deeper relationship with those around us and with you through the grace of your Son Jesus in whose name we pray. Amen.
