This program is for children who are ages 4 (turning 4 by the end of summer works!) up through completed grade 2. Children 3rd grade and up are encouraged to work on staying through worship and can use the worship bags and the book cart that will be at the back of the sanctuary throughout the summer!

Older kid helpers are also needed for this class, but that must be arranged with Deannine ahead of time! We are looking for youth and adult leaders as well!

Sign-ups to help lead are through Sign Up Genius using the QR code as we hope to give our regular Pathways leaders a break.

Children's Worship Bags will be available on May 26th and June 2nd.

Pride Parade—June 8th

State College Presbyterian Church is marching in the June 8th Pride Parade. We will also make signs for the Parade in the Social Hall on May 26th after worship. If you want to march with us, please sign up with this QR code or fill out a physical copy in the Social Hall. The Parade starts at 10 a.m. We suggest coming to the church half an hour early to receive a Parade Pass (which is required to march in the parade). You can join the parade on Allen St. after the vehicles pass. Bring sunscreen and water!
