

Worship in the Sanctuary

With the colder weather upon us we are worshiping in our sanctuary with a 30 minute service at 10:00 am. Of course we must deal with the reality of the pandemic so particular restrictions will be observed.

Worshippers will need to send an RSVP EACH WEEK, either by email to officescpc@gmail.com or leave a voice mail at the church office (814-238-2422), preferably by Thursday prior to service. The reason for this is that if we have more worshippers than can be accommodated at a single service, we will need to make arrangements for an additional service.

Up to thirty worshippers will be widely spaced in the downstairs area of the sanctuary and an overflow of five additional worshippers in the balcony. We ask that anyone with a temperature or any suspicious symptoms not attend and that everyone wear a mask and maintain proper distance from others. As without our outdoor service, the worship will last for thirty minutes. The heat will be on in the sanctuary but there will also be outside air ventilation, so dress accordingly.

The recorded YouTube service will continue for the foreseeable future.

"One Faith, One Hope, One Lord"

Text:
One faith, one hope, one Lord,
one church for which he died.
One voice, one song we lift in praise
to him who was and is and shall be evermore.

There is one body, one spirit,
as you were called to one hope.
One Lord, baptism and faith,
one God and Father of all, who is in you all.

Advent Devotionals

Awaken "Speak Lord, your servant is listening." 1 Samuel 3:10
Advent is a time of anticipation, but so often we are not quite sure how God will show up. So we must be ready for anything! We hope to be as Samuel, hearing God calling to us in the night, responding with ears open to how God is leading each of us. To ready ourselves to hear God's nudgings we can reflect together on the noticings of God we have experienced before. We will share stories of Aha! moments and new beginnings as well as processing feelings of dread or being held back. We invite you to participate in our daily Advent devotional reflections this season, starting November 29th. You can do so in different ways, as a contributor, writing a reflection to share with others, or receiving and connecting through reading the reflections of others. Please email Allison (allisonscpc@gmail.com) to make sure you're on the list or if you have any questions.

FISH Christmas Cookies 2020

The FISH Cookie Bake: a decades old tradition that helps cover Mission Trip costs and fill your Christmas cookie needs. It is still happening BUT Covid-19 means we must simplify. ### Christmas Poinsettia Orders

As in previous years, we would like to decorate the Sanctuary with poinsettias for Christmas. Each poinsettia plant will be $10.00 and you may designate who it will be in honor or memory of. Please send your order and check to the church at 132 West Beaver Avenue by December 13th.

Angel Tree

Thanks to so many of you, the virtual Angel Tree is being decorated with many virtual angels, representing your gifts to social service agencies in our area. Your generosity reflects the sharing spirit of the season, but we're not yet finished. The annual gift-giving program has been adapted to our current times. Out of abundant concern for health and safety and recognizing the limitations imposed by the virus, most of our gifts to the agencies we serve will be gift cards

One faith, one hope, one Lord,
one church for which he died.
One voice, one song we lift in praise
to him who was and is and shall be evermore

Though we be many people,
diverse with various gifts,
we are given to each other for the unity of faith,
that we grow in the knowledge of the Son of God.
In the full-ness of Christ.

One faith, one hope, one Lord,
one church for which he died.
One voice, one song we lift in praise
to him who was and is and shall be evermore

SCRIPTURE READING: Ephesians 1:15-20

15 I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason <sup>16</sup>I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. <sup>17</sup>I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, <sup>18</sup>so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, <sup>19</sup>and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. <sup>20</sup>God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places.

“The Hope to Which He has Called You”

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

“Apostles’ Creed”

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
