*Call to Worship

Leader: In Christ, the God of heaven has made a home on earth

People: Christ dwells among us and is one with us

Leader: Come now, all who are thirsty,

People: and drink the water of life

Leader: Come now, all who hunger,

People: and be filled with good things.

Leader: Come now, all who seek,

People: and be warmed by Christ's love

“For All the Saints”

*Call to Confession

Deannine Shipman

*Prayer of Confession

It is easy to judge those poor in spirit a failure and not a blessing. We often ask those who mourn to call us if they need something rather than keep vigil by their side. We consider the meek weak, and too often ignore them; those who hunger and thirst often take too much of our time. We hear how we are to be merciful and pure in heart, and how we are to make peace with our neighbors, yet we harbor resentments that keep us apart. Forgive our failure to live your beatitudes and in Christ give us your blessing as we confess our sin.

Community Needs and Opportunities

We have been made aware of some needs in the community for warm and warming items: blankets, coats, boots, and heaters for folks who are cold. If you have warm blankets, comforters, flannel sheets, coats, or boots that you no longer need, but that still have lots of use in them, please reach out to the church office, and we can let you know about sizes that we know are currently needed.

This morning, at the celebration of All Saints, we remember those loved ones from our midst who have passed from this life into eternal life. Listed are the names of church members who have gone before us over the past year. We invite you to join us as we give thanks for those who have gone before us, to seek both consolation and encouragement as we remind one another of the promise of God's abiding care in life and beyond it.

Candlelight Choir—Begins Tonight

Candlelight Choir rehearsals begin tonight at 7:00 PM in the Choir Room. This is a great chance for those of you who can't make the commitment to our regular choirs to get a great singing experience. We are open to all ages (including high school and college) and all ability levels. Rehearsals will continue Sunday evenings through December 4 with one final rehearsal on Saturday, December 10.

Would you make a Christmas card or write an encouraging message to a person who is incarcerated in Centre County?

Everyone is welcome to stop by a Card Corner in the Social Hall on TODAY, during Coffee Hour. You will find cards, stickers, markers, and pens, and friends. Stop in to write, decorate, or both on your way to your Exploration Hour destination, or make it your after-worship activity.

Christmas Dinner Planning Meeting

CHRISTMAS DINNER won't happen this year without YOU! If you want to make sure this 30+ year tradition continues, please come to a meeting in the Martin Room on November 1 at 7:00 pm. If you can't meet then, email Cheryl Price at clprice73@gmail.com and let her know what you are willing to do. Christmas Day will be here before we know it so we need to get organized!

Tree Dedication—Next Sunday

Immediately following worship next week there will be a short service of dedication for a memorial to Joanne Chuckran. Joanne will be remembered for her passion for and dedication to sharing the history of State College Presbyterian Church. Weather permitting the service will be held outside at the tree planted along Frasier St. in her memory.
