SUBJECT: Nondiscrimination in Services

DATE: May 2024

TO: Parents/Guardians

FROM: Laura Seeley, Director

Admissions into the program, the provisions of services, and referrals of clients shall be made without regard to race, color, religious creed, disability, ancestry, national origin, age, or sex.

Program services shall be made accessible to eligible persons with disabilities through the most practical and economically feasible methods available. These methods include, but are not limited to, equipment redesign, the provision of aides, and the use of alternative service delivery locations. Structural modifications shall be considered only as a last resort among available methods.

Any parent and/or guardian who feel they have been discriminated against may file a complaint of discrimination with any of the following:
